

Jurong Port

No: 87 of 2025

20 Nov 2025

To: All Port Users

UNAUTHORISED ENTRY INTO JURONG PORT

1. This Circular serves as a reminder to all Port Users that the Passes issued by Jurong Port are non-transferable and solely for entry into the Port for Official duties. All port users must have a valid JP Pass when entering the port. There have been incidents in the past involving port users abetting the entry of unauthorised persons. All parties involved were taken to task by the Singapore Police Force for breaching the Infrastructure Protection Act and the port users were barred from entering the port.
2. Jurong Port is a Protected Place and any unauthorised entry into the port is a serious offence. Anyone caught entering without a JP Pass, or abetting the offence, will be subjected to investigations by Jurong Port and the Singapore Police Force. Punitive actions will be taken against any offenders that are found guilty of committing this offence.
3. We seek your cooperation in ensuring full compliance with the above requirement.
